INTERCULTURAL STUDIES MAJOR, B.A.

Christian Studies & Philosophy Department; College of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences

Intercultural Studies is a major at Asbury which prepares students for cross-cultural ministry in an international setting or among ethnic groups in the United States. This program seeks to equip students with knowledge and understanding of the issues of intercultural communication in general and cross-cultural communication of the Christian gospel in particular. Using a multidisciplinary approach, students learn to analyze intercultural problems, work within the arena of cultural diversity, and form the conceptual framework and practical skills needed for effective cross-cultural communication and ministry.

To graduate must complete all major requirements, foundational requirements, and additional electives needed for 124 hour minimum degree requirement. OT 100, NT 100, and TH 250 are Foundations requirements for all students and do not apply below.
